

Summer Science Workshop

Trails to Research Program at Montana State University in Bozeman

Immerse yourself in research projects that investigate how the environment affects fetal development using zebrafish embryos as a model for human development.

Course dates: July 7-13, 2019

Hands-on course

Learn important lab techniques

Think and work like a scientist

Support: Gas, food and room (MSU dorms) will be provided, $400 stipend after completing the whole course

Applications and Questions: MSU faculty: Jennifer Forecki jforecki@montana.edu; Christa Merzdorf: merzdorf@montana.edu

SCC: Larry Gomoll: lgomoll@stonechild.edu

